ABOUT THE DATA

This publication provides a summary of Alberta's international trade statistics for 2009, with sections for exports by industry and exports by region. A profile is also included for each country that imported more than $20 million of goods from Alberta in 2009. Each profile provides a chart tracking Alberta's total exports to the country since 1995, Alberta's top 20 export products and Canada's top 10 export products in 2009. Alberta's exports by each US state, including and excluding energy products, are also provided.

Because service exports are not currently available for provinces on a country-specific basis, in this report "exports" refers only to exports of goods, except in the introductory "Year in Review" section, which includes an estimate of Alberta's global services exports. Additionally, "exports" refers to "domestic exports"—those grown, extracted or manufactured in Canada—and does not include "re-exports"—goods imported into Canada and minimally processed but not substantially enhanced in value before being exported again.

Most of the trade statistics in this report are based on the international Harmonized System (HS), which is administered by the World Customs Organization and organizes all traded goods under a standardized, six-digit, logically ordered, numeric coding system. This system is used by more than 190 countries and forms the basis for customs tariffs, relevant WTO or bilateral free trade negotiations and international trade statistics. The HS system is used in this report to quantify product-specific exports. Sector and industry-based export statistics in this report, though, are based on the North American Industry Classification System (NAICS), which was adopted by Canada, the United States and Mexico in 1997 to provide common definitions of the industrial structure of the three countries and a common statistical framework to facilitate the analysis of the three economies. Because of technical differences in how trade statistics are tracked with the HS and NAICS systems there may be small differences in reported exports depending on the system used.

Export data in the country profile tables is presented at the HS 6-digit level. Product descriptions have been shortened to fit the space available. Full product descriptions can be found in Statistics Canada's "The Canadian Export Classification 2009" at: http://www.statcan.ca/english/tradedata/cec/index.htm.

Statistics Canada is the main source of information on goods trade for this publication. Estimates for service exports are developed by Alberta Finance and Enterprise based on special surveys conducted by Statistics Canada. Information on GDP growth and forecasts come from the International Monetary Fund World Economic Outlook (April 2010), unless otherwise noted.

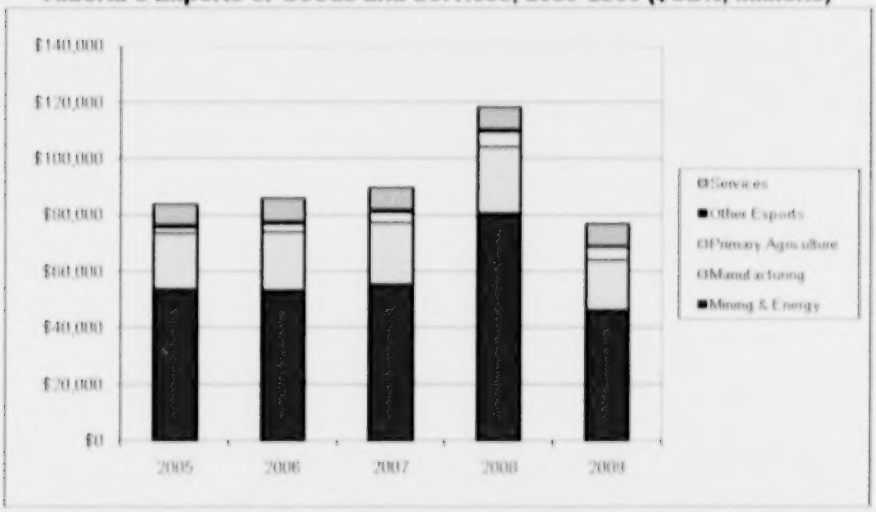
The Year in Review

2009 was a dramatic year for global trade and for the global economy, generally. Global trade decreased substantially as consumer demand remained low. Commodity prices, which had declined significantly in the second half of 2008, increased modestly in the second half of 2009. However, 2008 is likely to remain as the high water mark for Alberta's exports, in the near term.

In 2009 Alberta exported a total of $76.8 billion worth of goods and services, a decline of 35% from the previous year. Exports of merchandise goods from Alberta decreased from $110.2 billion in 2008 to $70.1 billion, down 36%, while service exports decreased from $8.1 billion to $7.7 billion, down 5.2%. Alberta's top export industries were mining and energy, manufacturing (particularly chemicals, food and beverages, and machinery) and primary agricultural products. Alberta goods were imported by 190 countries in 2009. The top five export markets (in order) were the United States (US), China, Japan, the European Union (EU) and Mexico.

Alberta's Exports of Goods and Services, 2005-2009 ($CDN, Millions)

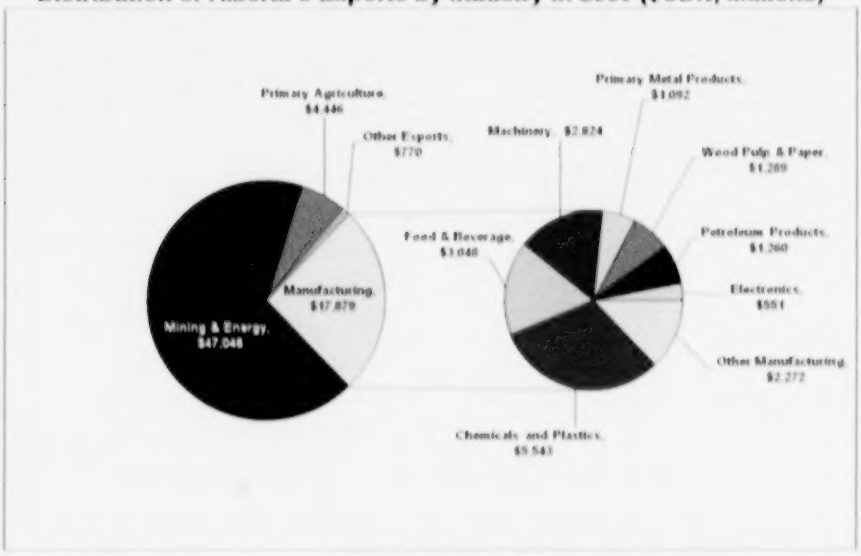


A summary of Alberta's exports by industry and global region follows.

Alberta Exports by Industry

The value of Alberta's good exports decreased 36% from $110.2 billion in 2008 to $70.1 billion in 2009. The Mining and Energy sector accounted for 67% ($47.0 billion) of Alberta's total goods exports. Excluding energy and mining products, Alberta exported $23.1 billion of other goods, down 22% from the previous year.

Distribution of Alberta's Exports by Industry in 2009 ($CDN, Millions)



Mining and Energy exports totaled $47.0 billion in 2009. Exports from the sector were composed of mostly crude oil, worth $31.1 billion (66% of total energy exports), and natural gas ($14.9 billion, 32% of the total). Crude oil exports decreased 35% from $47.8 billion in 2008, while natural gas exports decreased 51% from $30.2 billion during the same time period. The value of crude oil and natural gas exports combined declined 41% from $78.0 billion in 2008 to $46.0 billion in 2009.

Manufacturing was Alberta's second most important export sector in 2009. Manufactured exports accounted for a total of $17.9 billion, down 24% from the previous year. Within the Manufacturing sector, Chemical exports declined by 33% to $5.4 billion in 2009 from $8.0 billion in 2008. Food and beverage exports decreased 3.5% from $3.2 billion in 2008, to $3.0 billion to 2009. Machinery exports decreased from $3.5 billion in 2008 to $2.8 billion in 2009, down 20%. Woodpulp and paper exports decreased 18% from $1.6 billion in 2008 to $1.3 billion in 2009. Exports of primary metals decreased from $1.8 billion to $1.1 billion, at a rate of 40% from 2008 to 2009.

Primary Agriculture exports declined from $5.2 billion to $4.4 billion in 2009, at a rate of 14%. Livestock exports shrank 14% to $582.7 million. Crop exports decreased 14% to $3.9 billion in 2009. The decline in crop export values can be accounted for by low prices for these commodities throughout 2009.

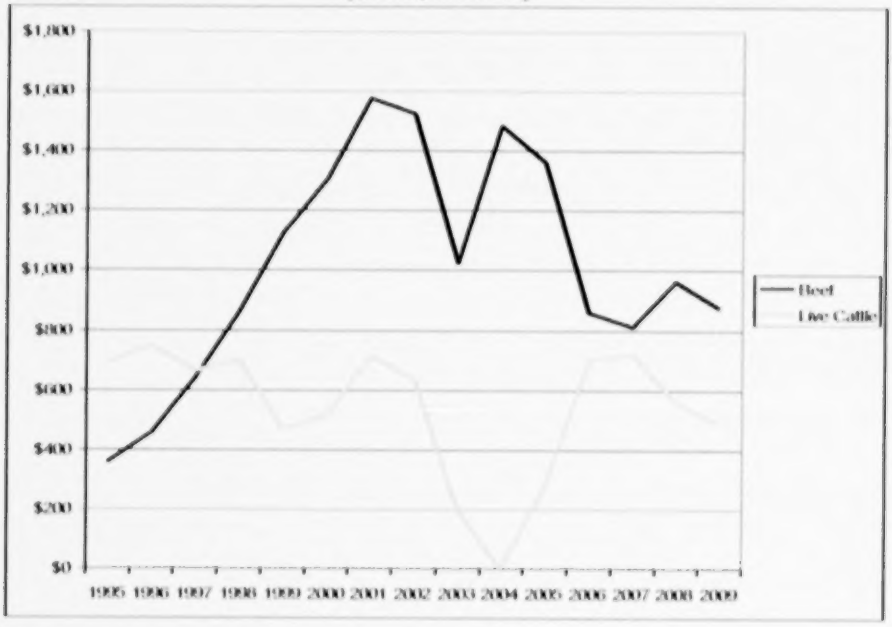
Crop exports were heavily influenced by the performance of wheat and canola seed, which made up approximately 89% of total crop exports. Alberta's exports of wheat decreased 12% to $2.1 billion in 2009, while canola seed exports declined by 11% to $1.3 billion over the same time period. The greatest factor influencing the performance of these products was low prices relative to 2008. The volume of shipments for both products increased, but not enough to offset the declines in their average prices. The volume of wheat exports increased 25% and its average export price declined 30%. Canola seed exports fared similarly. The export volume of canola seeds grew 15% from 2008 to 2009, while the average export price fell 22%.

Canola oil and oil cake exports increased from $632.1 million to $690.0 million in 2009, 9.2% growth from 2008 to 2009. Export volume increased at a faster rate than export prices fell, resulting in a net gain in the value of canola oil and oil cake exports.

Processed meat exports decreased 4.6% in 2009 to $1.3 billion. Exports of livestock performed less well than processed meat, with the value of exports falling 15% overall to $534.7 million. Beef and cattle remain the largest respective components of these two export categories. Frozen or fresh beef was worth $871.8 million total, down 19% from 2008 to 2009, while live cattle exports shrank 14% to $481.3 million. The chart below illustrates the long-term trend of these two industries since 1995.

Alberta's Exports of Live Cattle and Fresh and Frozen Beef 1995-2009 ($CDN, Millions)



In 2009 exports of fresh or frozen pork grew 6.1% to $349.1 million while the value of live swine shrank 23% to $38.7 million. Exports of live swine were greatly affected by a decrease in demand due to the inaccurate linking of live swine with the H1N1 influenza outbreak. The export price and volume for live swine both declined from 2008 to 2009.

Mining and Energy

Mining and Energy exports decreased 42% to $47.0 billion in 2009, down from $80.6 billion in 2008. Mining exports were diversified in their destination markets in 2008 while 99% of energy exports were destined for the US.

Crude oil exports to the US decreased 35% from 2008 to $30.9 billion in 2009. The average prices of crude oil fell 36% over the same time period. Exports of natural gas to the US decreased from $28.1 billion in 2008 to $13.6 billion (down 52%). The following table shows price, volume and value data for Alberta's exports of crude oil and natural gas to the United States in 2008 and 2009.

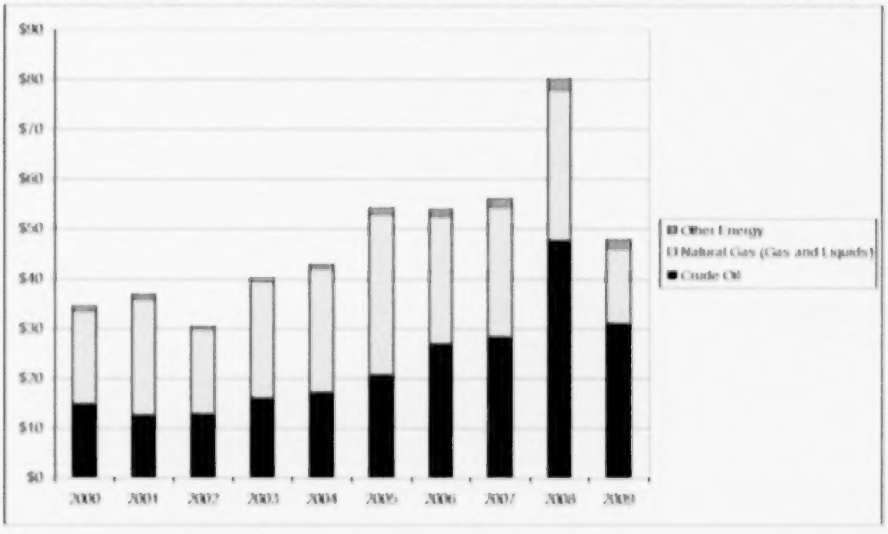
Alberta's Exports of Energy Products to the United States ($CDN, Billions)



Coal exports grew 6.3% in value, from 2008 to 2009 (reaching $705.9 million). In 2008 Japan was the largest market for Alberta's coal products and absorbed $339.9 million of the total, up 49% from 2008. The second most important market for Alberta's coal in 2009 was South Korea at $131.2 million. The US ranked third at $99.4 million.

Exports of Alberta's sulphur shrank 85% from $1.9 billion in 2008 to $287.2 million in 2009. Sulphur, which is a by-product of oil and natural gas industries, had benefited from a large increase in average prices in 2008. In 2009, prices corrected to levels similar to what they have been historically. China ($133.8 million), the United States ($53.1 million) and Brazil ($30.2 million) were the most significant export markets for sulphur.

Manufacturing

Alberta's Manufacturing exports decreased 24% in value, to $17.9 billion in 2009. The Manufacturing sector made up 77% of Alberta's non-energy sector exports. Chemical manufacturing was the largest subsector of manufacturing and accounted for $5.4 billion of all manufacturing in 2009. Food and beverage manufacturing followed at $3.0 billion, down 3.5% from 2008. Machinery exports ranked as Alberta's third largest manufacturing sub-sector at $2.8 billion in 2009, down 20% from $3.5 billion in 2008.

Some manufacturing subsectors weathered the economic crisis well, with declines less than 10%. Non-metallic mineral products, food and beverage manufacturing, transportation equipment manufacturing and wood products were less impacted than some other sectors.

Other manufacturing subsector exports did not fare as well in 2009. Primary metal products decreased 40% to $1.1 billion, while exports of computer and electronic products decreased 39%, from $906.1 million to $550.9 million. Furniture manufacturing decreased 37% to $116.6 million. These three subsectors decreased at the fastest rate of all subsectors.

Plastic exports from Alberta to the world totaled $2.8 billion in 2009, down from $3.8 billion in 2008. The U.S. consumed $3.1 billion of Alberta's plastic exports in 2008, but this decreased 30% in 2009 to $2.2 billion. China followed the U.S. as the second largest importer of Alberta's plastics. Plastic exports to China decreased 8.8% in 22008 to $236.4 million in 2009. Exports to Mexico, the third most important market for Alberta's plastics, grew 6.2% to $117.0 million during the same time period.

Organic chemicals ranked as Alberta's second most important chemical and plastics exports in 2009. Organic chemicals accounted for $1.5 billion worth of exports, down from $2.6 billion in 2008. Exports of organic chemicals to the U.S., the most important market for Alberta's chemicals, shrank 38% from 2008 to 2009, from $1.6 billion to $980.9 million. China absorbed $337.5 million in 2009, down 61% from $869.7 million in 2008. Within the organic chemicals category, exports of ethylene glycol (antifreeze) accounted for $759.9 million of the total, down from $1.2 billion in 2008. The most important market for ethylene glycol in 2009 was China at $336.8 million. Other significant exports included acyclic hydrocarbons ($328.1 million) and styrene ($203.8 million). Both export products were destined almost entirely to the U.S.

Alberta's exports of fertilizers, such as urea and ammonium nitrate, were worth $601.5 million in 2009, down 26% from $823.0 million in 2008. Exports of fertilizers were mostly destined for the U.S., which absorbed 94% of the total ($562.6 million).

Inorganic chemical exports shrank 53% from $ 771.8 million to $363.4 million in 2009. Ammonia accounted for the bulk of inorganic exports in 2009 at $306.4 million, down from $662.7 million. The average price for ammonia decreased 45% from 2008 to 2009 and was largely responsible for the significant decrease in export value.

Machinery

Alberta's exports of machinery decreased from $3.5 billion in 2008 to $2.8 billion in 2009. Boring and sinking machinery and part exports decreased 25% in value from $1.2 billion in 2008 to $890.3 million in 2009. Exports of pump for gases and their parts increased 14% in 2009 to $372.3million. Gas turbine exports also grew 10%, from $264.5 million to $291.9 million.

Products in these industries can be divided into three categories; computers, electrical machinery, and precision instruments. Exports of Alberta's computer and computer components decreased 44% from $54.0 million in 2008 to $30.2 million in 2009. Electrical machinery exports decreased from $634.1 million to $429.4 million, approximately 32% from 2008 to 2009. Radar and radio-navigation equipment made up the largest proportion of this category in 2009 at $62.3 million. This was followed by exports of boards and panels with more than two apparatus at $51.9 million and telephone equipment at $47.4 million.

Alberta's precision instrument exports shrank 34% from 2008 to 2009, from $585.0 million to $377.0 million. Instruments for physical analysis were the most important precision instrument exports at $86.1 million in 2009, down from $130.7 million in 2008. Surveying and geophysical equipment ranked second at $75.8 million in 2009, down 61% from the previous year. Exports of instruments for measuring and checking flow decreased 11% to $57.5 million in 2009.

The US was the largest destination for Alberta's computers, electrical machinery and precision instruments in 2008. For both electrical machinery and precision instruments the US was the largest market in 2009. Electrical machinery exports to the US decreased from $369.9 million in 2008 to $225.4 million in 2009. Exports of optical instruments to the US shrank 45% from $362.2 million to $199.7 million, while computer and component exports to the US were $20.9 million in 2009.

China was Alberta's second largest destination for these products. In 2009, China consumed $28.1 million worth of precision instruments, up 25% from the previous year. Electrical machinery exports were worth $17.9 million in 2009.

The United Kingdom (UK) consumed $21.1 million worth of Alberta's precision instrument exports in 2009, down 41% from 2009. In 2009 electrical machinery and computer and component exports were worth $18.2 million and $1.1 million.

Alberta Exports by Region

It should be no surprise that North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) countries continued to be Alberta's largest export market in 2009 ($60.0 billion.) The United States consumed $59.0 billion of Alberta's exports, with energy the dominant export product. Overall, energy exports accounted for $47.1 billion to the US, approximately 80% of total exports. Alberta's exports in the Asia-Pacific region decreased from $7.8 billion in 2008 to $6.6 billion in 2009. Exports to Europe decreased 19% to $1.4 billion in 2009, approximately 2.0% of Alberta's total exports.

Following is a report on Alberta's exports by region with key countries for each region highlighted. Please see the Market profiles in the Appendix for detailed export statistics on individual countries.

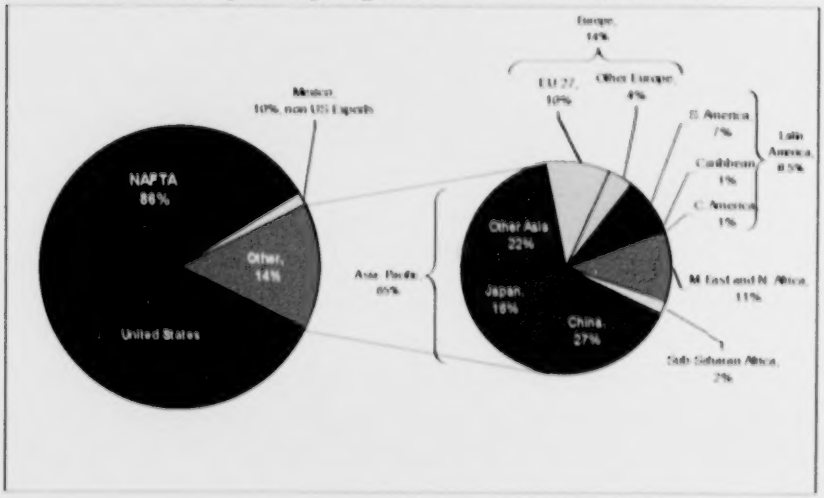
Alberta's Exports by Region in 2008: Total = $70.1 Billion



North America

North America is Alberta's most important trade region and accounted for 86% of total Alberta exports in 2009. Merchandise exports to NAFTA partners were valued at $60.0 billion, down 39% from 2008. 98% of Alberta's North American exports were destined for the US.

Energy products accounted for 79% of Alberta's exports to North America ($47.1 billion). Crude oil made up 65% ($30.9 billion, down 35% from 2008) of energy exports in 2009 while natural gas accounted for 32% ($15.1 billion, down 51%). Calcined petroleum coke, light oils and coal made up the remainder.

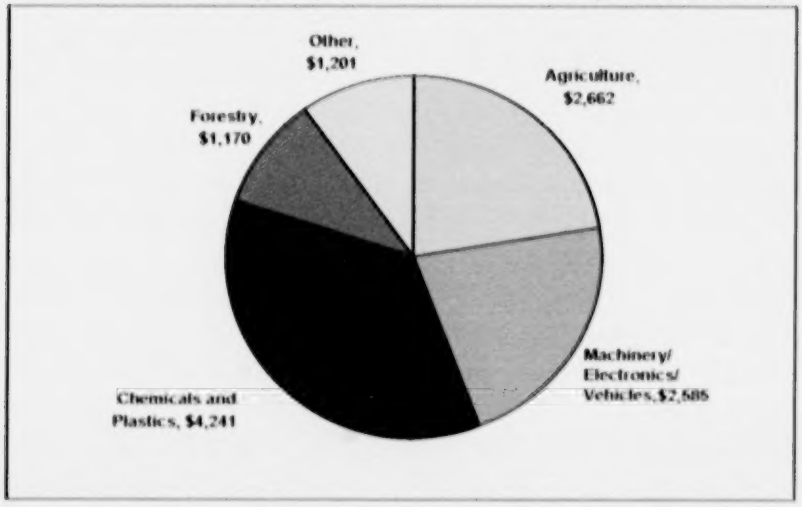
United States

The US was Alberta's single largest trading partner in 2009 at $59.0 billion (84% of Alberta's total exports). With exports oriented heavily in that market, Alberta is particularly susceptible to US economic performance relative to that of other countries. The US economy shrank by 2.4% in 2009, but is expected to grow by 3.1% in 2010 and by 2.6% in 2011.[1]

Energy was the largest export sector to the U.S. in 2009. Exports of energy decreased 41% in 2009 from $79.5 billion to $47.1 billion. The large decrease in export value was due to rapidly declining energy prices. See the Mining and Energy Sector section for tables and charts illustrating volume and pricing trends. Overall, the quantity of crude oil exports, the largest export product to the US, grew 1.8% from 2008 to 2009. However, the price of crude oil decreased 36% and offset the gain in quantity. Overall, the value of crude oil exports to the US decreased from $47.8 billion in 2008 to $30.9 billion in 2009, a 35% decrease. Natural gas was Alberta's second most important export to the US, despite shrinking 52% from $28.1 billion in 2008 to $13.6 billion in 2009. Liquefied propane exports fell 41%, from $1.8 billion to $1.1 billion during the same time period. However, energy prices have recovered somewhat since the end of 2009. While it is unlikely that price levels similar to those in 2008 will be seen for some time, energy exports are expected to increase in 2010.

Alberta's non-energy exports to the US decreased from $17.1 billion in 2008 to $11.9 billion in 2009. A breakdown of these exports, by sector, is provided in the following chart. Note that these categories will be different than

Alberta's Non-Energy Exports to the U.S. in 2009 ($CDN, Millions)



[1] International Monetary Fund (IMF), World Economic Outlook 2010

Agricultural exports decreased 16% from $3.2 billion in 2008 to $2.7 billion in 2009. Alberta's exports of meat products to the U.S declined 12% to $771.4 million and were the largest exports from the agricultural sector. Beef comprised the bulk of meat exports at $659.7 million. Live animal exports shrank from $615.1 million to $526.7 million. Cattle were the largest component of live animal exports in 2009, at $480.7 million, down from $558.1 million in 2008. Exports of cereals (such as wheat, barley and oats) decreased 31% from $498.0 million to $344.8 million in 2009. This was caused by lower prices for cereals as well as a smaller quantity shipped. Exports of preserved food from Alberta increased to $186.9 million, up 19% from 2008. An increase in both the average price and the quantity of preserved food shipped is responsible.

Chemicals and plastics continued to be Alberta's most important non-energy export to the US. These exports decreased 32% in 2009, from $6.4 billion in 2008 to $4.2 billion. Alberta's exports of plastics to the US in 2009 were worth $2.2 billion in 2009, a 30% decrease from $3.1 billion in 2008. Organic chemicals and fertilizers were important chemical exports to the US and were worth $980.9 million and $562.6 million in 2009 respectively.

Alberta's exports of machinery, electronics, precision instruments, and vehicles fell from $3.8 billion in 2008 to $2.6 billion in 2009. Machinery exports were worth $1.7 billion in 2009, down 29% from the previous year. Alberta's exports of precision instruments shrank from $362.2 million in 2008 to $199.7 million in 2009. Exports of electrical machinery decreased 39%, from $369.9 million in 2008 to $225.4 million. Exports of vehicles to the US decreased during this period as well.

Exports from Alberta's forestry sector declined 23%, from $1.5 billion in 2008 to $1.2 billion in 2009. Exports of wood and lumber from 2008 to 2009 decreased 14% from $518.4 million to $443.4 million. Woodpulp and paper exports were worth $572.3 million (down 23%) and $128.4 million (down 28%) respectively in 2009. Housing starts in the US are expected to increase somewhat in 2010 as the economic situation improves in the US, driving up demand for wood and wood products.

Alberta's other exports declined significantly as well, from $2.2 billion in 2008, to $1.2 billion in 2009. Iron and steel products remained the largest proportion of Alberta's other exports to the US, despite declining 46% in value to $395.4 million. Aluminum exports decreased to $90.2 million from $130.4 million over the same time period. Salt, sulfur and stone exports, the third most important export sector in the category, decreased 81% in value from 2008 to 2009, from $444.7 million to $85.5 million.

Commodity prices played a large role in determining Alberta's export performance in 2009. As the US economy continues to recover in 2010, it is expected that demand will increase, resulting in higher prices and thus larger export values for Alberta.

It is difficult to identify the final destination for Alberta's exports to the U.S., since goods are frequently shipped on to new locations following their recorded arrival in the U.S. Oil and natural gas are particularly difficult since those goods are moved via pipeline, making it difficult to track the final destination. However, the data can be used to identify which states are the most important in terms of gaining access at the border. U.S. Midwest states were the major markets for Alberta oil and natural gas products in 2009.

Excluding oil and natural gas exports (and excluding the U.S. as a whole), Texas was Alberta's second largest global export market after China, at $1.7 billion in 2009. California ranked as Alberta's fourth most important market for non-energy exports after Japan, followed by Mexico, Washington and Illinois.

Alberta's exports (excluding oil and gas?) to Texas, the most important market in the United States, decreased 32% to $1.7 billion in 2009, down from $2.6 billion in 2008. Machinery, mostly oil and natural gas equipment and parts, was the largest export product to Texas from Alberta and accounted for $669.0 million, down 33% from 2008 levels. Plastics exports decreased from $469.9 million in 2008, to $291.0 million in 2009. Iron and steel products ranked third and were composed mostly of piping. These exports were valued at $150.2 million in 2009, a decrease of 39% from the previous year.

Exports (excluding oil and gas?) to California decreased from $1.4 billion in 2008 to $1.1 billion in 2009. Alberta's most important exports to California were meat ($223.5 million, down 5.1%), plastics ($230.7 million, down 32%), and organic chemicals ($116.4 million, down 58%). Prices were the biggest factor in these declines, particularly for organic chemicals.

Alberta's exports to Washington State, the third most important U.S. market for non-energy products, decreased from $861.5 million in 2008 to $784.7 million in 2009. Live animals (mostly cattle) were the most important exports to Washington in 2009. Exports of live cattle grew 20%, from $279.5 million in 2008 to $336.4 million in 2009. Exports of inorganic chemicals (primarily ammonia) to Washington decreased from $96.9 million to $56.0 million during the same time period. Woodpulp, the third most important export product from Alberta to Washington, declined 24% to $45.1 million in 2009.

Illinois was Alberta's fourth largest U.S. market and accounted for $655.5 million in 2009, down 29% from 2008. Organic chemicals were the most important non-energy export at $210.7 million in 2009, a slight decrease from $212.8 million in 2008. Plastics were the next largest export product to Illinois in 2009 at $173.5 million. Exports of plastics shrank from $234.6 million in 2008, at a rate 26%. Meat exports increased from $42.8 million to $47.9 million in 2008.

Mexico

Mexico's economy shrank 6.5% in 2009, but is expected to grow 4.2% in 2010, and 4.5% in 2011. Mexico is heavily reliant on the US as a market. As the US recovers, Mexico's economy should expand as well.

Alberta's exports to Mexico declined from a peak of $1.1 billion in 2008 to $994.7 million in 2009 (down 51%). Boring or sinking machinery parts were the largest export product Alberta sent to Mexico in 2009 at $198.5 million, up 35% from the previous year. Canola exports ranked second at $180.1 million, down 43% from 2008. Beef cutlets were Alberta's third most important export to Mexico at $115.1 million, a decrease from $115.9 million in 2008.

Asia-Pacific

The Asia-Pacific region was the next most important regional market for Alberta goods after North America. Exports to the region are expected to grow in 2010 owing to a strong fiscal and monetary response by these countries to the economic crisis.[2] However, some uncertainty remains in the global marketplace.

Australia's GDP grew 1.3% in 2009 and is forecast to grow by 3.0% in 2010 and 3.5% in 2011.[3]

Canada has been pursuing free trade negotiations in the region, notably the Canada-South Korea Free Trade Agreement (FTA) and a Canada-Singapore FTA, though these negotiations seem to have stalled. Discussions are taking place with India on a potential Comprehensive Economic Partnership Agreement (CEPA). A joint study evaluating the benefits of greater economic cooperation between the two countries was completed in September 2010, and it encouraged the launch of free trade agreement negotiations.[4] Canada has concluded or is negotiating Foreign Investment Promotion Agreements (FIPA's) with various countries in the region, including China, India, Indonesia and Vietnam. Canada has also expressed interest in joining the Trans-Pacific Partnership, a regional free trade area comprised of Brunei, Chile, New Zealand, and Singapore, with Australia, Peru, the US and Vietnam negotiating entry.

Exports from Alberta to the Asia-Pacific region decreased 16%, from $7.8 billion in 2008 to $6.6 billion in 2009. Alberta was the second largest provincial exporter to the region. British Columbia exported $9.2 billion in 2009, down 16% from 2008. Canadian exports to the Asia-Pacific region decreased 12% to $33.8 billion in the same time period.

China was the largest market for Alberta exports in the Asia-Pacific during 2009 and absorbed $2.8 billion worth of goods (42% of total exports to the region), down 11% from 2008. Exports to Japan decreased 20% from $2.0 billion to $1.6 billion in 2009. South Korea was the third most important market in the region in 2009, at $532.6 million, up 3.0% from 2008.

China

China's economy grew at a rapid pace in 2009, by 8.7%, according to the IMF. From 2004 to 2008, the average growth rate of China's economy was above 10%, and it is expected to continue to grow by 10% and 9.9% in 2010 and 2011 respectively. China weathered the global recession better than most Asian-Pacific economies.

China was Alberta's largest export market, excluding the US, in 2009. The most important export products from Alberta to China were canola seed, canola oil and ethylene glycol. Canola seed exports grew 80% from $300.5 million in 2008 to $542.4 million in 2009. Exports of canola oil in 2009 grew 113% to $365.9 million. Ethylene glycol slipped from Alberta's top export in 2008 to third in 2009. Exports of this product shrank 61%, from $869.4 million in 2008 to $296 million in 2009. Unwrought nickel maintained its number four ranking at $296.0 million in 2009, up 26% from 234.7 million. Ethylene polymer exports fell 14% to $175.1 million in 2009 and were Alberta's fifth most important export product to China.

Japan

The Japanese economy shrank by 5.2% in 2009 but is expected to resume growth in 2010 at 1.9%, followed by 2.0% in 2011. Japan was Alberta's second most important export market in 2009, excluding the US. Alberta's exports to Japan decreased 20% to $1.6 billion in 2009.

Alberta's most important export to Japan in 2009 was canola seed. Exports of canola seed shrank 32% from $519.5 million in 2008 to $352.1 million. Coal was the second most important export from Alberta to Japan in 2008. Coal exports grew 9%, from $311.9 million in 2008 to $339.8 million in 2009. Chilled pork ranked as Alberta's third most important export to Japan at $125.2 million, up 20% from $104.1 million in 2008. Canola seed prices decreased significantly from 2008 to 2009.

Exports of cobalt, which had been Alberta's third largest export product to Japan in 2008, fell 67% to $64.1 million in 2009, and fell at a rate faster than any other product in the top twenty exports to Japan. This was caused by lower prices.

South Korea

South Korea's economy grew by 0.2% in 2009. In 2010 and 2011, the South Korean economy is expected to grow 4.5% and 5.0% respectively

The Canada-South Korea FTA has been under negotiation since July 2005. To date there have been thirteen rounds of negotiations with the last occurring in March 2008. Access for Canadian agricultural exports, including beef, is an important component of the negotiations for Alberta.

South Korea was the third most important export market for Alberta in the Asia-Pacific region. Exports grew 3.0% from $514.3 million to $532.6 million in 2009. The largest product Alberta exported to South Korea in 2009 was coal at $131.2 million, an increase of 48% from $88.8 million in 2008. Chemical woodpulp followed at $90.6 million. Powered winches were Alberta's third largest export product to South Korea in 2009 and grew 1.6% to $40.1 million.

Europe & CIS

The economies of Europe and the Commonwealth of Independent States shrank in 2009 but are expected to resume growth in 2010 as the global economic outlook improves.

Growth is expected to resume at a rate of 1.0% in 2010, and is forecast to be 1.5% in 2011. Canada and the EU are currently negotiating a Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (CETA), and it is the largest free trade agreement negotiation that Canada has undertaken since the NAFTA.

As a whole, the EU was Alberta's fourth most important export market; however, Alberta shipped only 1.4% of its total exports to the EU in 2009, at $1.0 billion, down 19% from $1.3 billion in 2008.

Nickel was the province's largest export to the EU and accounted for 20% of all exports in 2009, but also shrank 49% in value from 2008 levels, to $201.0 million. The decline in export value for unwrought nickel can be attributed to weak prices and decreased shipments throughout 2009.

Ranked second and third were cereals ($184.5 million) and machinery ($167.3 million) respectively. Exports of cereals grew 1.5% from 2008 to 2009 and accounted for 18% of the EU's total. Turbo-propellers were the most significant product in the machinery sector and accounted for $67.1 million in 2009. Alberta exports of chemicals to the EU ranked fourth in 2009, up to $55.2 million in 2009, from $2.7 million in 2008. Precision instruments ranked fifth at $44.3 million, down 20% from the previous year.

Overall, Alberta's top twenty exports to the EU shrank by 18% in value, while other Albertan exports to the EU shrank more rapidly at a pace of 34%. Chemicals represented the fastest growing exports, but they grew from a small base and skewed the results.

Netherlands Historically, the Netherlands, the United Kingdom and Belgium have served as points of entry for Canadian goods into Europe and do not necessarily represent the final destination.

The Netherlands was the largest destination for Alberta exports in the EU. Overall, the Netherlands economy shrank 4.0% in 2009 and is expected to grow by 1.3% in both 2010 and 2011.

Exports to the Netherlands decreased 12% to $301.4 million from 2008 to 2009. Unwrought nickel remained the dominant export product from Alberta during this time period. Exports of unwrought nickel shrank 40% from $273.0 million to $165.1 million, but still accounted for 55% of exports to the country. The second largest export product to the Netherlands in 2009 was miscellaneous chemicals at $46.1 million. Cobalt ranked third at $22.7 million and grew from $22.4 million in 2008 (up 1.7%).

United Kingdom The United Kingdom's real GDP decreased at a rate of 4.9% in 2009. Real GDP is expected to expand 1.3% in 2010 and 2.5% in 2011. The UK was second largest destination for Alberta exports to the EU at $161.8 million, down 26% from 2008.

Non-durum wheat was Alberta's most significant export to the UK in 2009, despite a 32% decrease in export value to $43.9 million. The price of wheat declined significantly during 2009 and was the biggest contributing factor to the export performance of this product.

In 2009, Alberta exports of taps, cocks and valves ranked second ($18.3 million), while exports of medical dressings (excluding adhesive bandages) increased 70%, from $6.9 million to $11.7 million from 2008 to 2009.

Italy The Italian economy shrank by 5.0% in 2009 and is expected to grow at rates of 0.8% and 1.2% in 2010 and 2011 respectively.

Italy replaced Belgium as Alberta's third largest EU trading partner in 2009. Alberta's exports to Italy totaled $151.7 million in 2009, a 6.0% decline from $161.3 million in 2008. Durum wheat was Alberta's largest export to Italy and was up 154%, from $21.4 million in 2008 to $54.3 million in 2009. Turbo propeller exports ranked second at $33.9 million, down 8.0%. Non-durum wheat and unwrought nickel exports followed at $24.7 million and $10.6 million respectively.

The Global Economy

Exchange Rates: Canadian Dollar to U.S. Dollar and Euro
(Source: Bank of Canada)

At the start of 2009 the Canadian dollar was worth close to $0.80 of a US dollar. By the end of 2009, the dollar had returned to near parity. Generally speaking, a high dollar puts Alberta's exports at a competitive disadvantage by making them more expensive internationally, thereby decreasing their demand. However, a higher dollar allows Alberta consumers to purchase more goods imported from the US.

The global economy shrank 0.6% in 2009 but is expected to recover in 2010 and expand 4.2%. Real GDP is expected to continue growing at a rate of 4.3% in 2011. The volume of world trade also declined in 2009 by 11%, a much faster rate than world GDP. Trade volumes are expected to resume growing in 2010 in 2011 at rates of 7.0% and 6.1%.

The International Monetary Fund (IMF) stated that while the global economy is in recovery, it is occurring at varying rates. On average, growth rates in developed countries have been much lower than those of emerging or developing nations. Europe and Japan have been among the slowest to recover, while developing economies in Asia have steamed on ahead. Stability in the global market is not yet assured. Some potential obstacles to recovery include a weak financial sector, reduced stimulus spending, and the introduction of trade protectionist measures. However, the global economic situation is much brighter than it was at the end of 2008 and positive growth rates are expected for most countries in 2010.
